(54) PENCIL TYPE PORTABLE RADIO TELEPHONY EQUIPMENT

(57)Abstract:

PURPOSE: To unnecessitate a hook operation in the case of speech by using the hook switch of a telephone set as well by composing a receiver of an attachable/detachable earphone instead of a loudspeaker.

CONSTITUTION: The part of the receiver is composed of an earphone 1, and a certain mechanism is adopted to change over the hook switch of the telephone set by attaching/detaching the earphone 1. Then, the earphone 1 is housed in a housing recessed part 4a provided in a pencil type upper enclosure 4. Thus, the hook switch of the telephone set is used as well by the operation of attaching/detaching the earphone 1 in the radio equipment in a pencil size, and in the case of speech, any hook operation is not required. Further, energy consumption is reduced in comparison with a reception circuit composed of the loudspeaker, and the energy consumption of the equipment is reduced as a whole.
